BRIANA LIBBY
MINNEAPOLIS, MN

Dear Cartoon Network
and DC Comics:

I really like the POWERPUFF GIRLS. In fact, I'm a fan and I got some of the comic books. That's when I got the idea to make this drawing. I really like Buttercup the most. The Powerpuff Girls are the greatest.

KELIS KING
DOLTON, IL

Dear POWERPUFF GIRLS:

How do you feel with your powers? I wish I had powers like you three.

My name is Kelis. I know your names: Blossom, Buttercup and Bubbles. Who's your mom? Oh, yeah, you were made with sugar, spice and everything nice. What's your favorite color? Mine is red. I'm a boy. Please mail me back real quickly. I'll mail you back later.

We'll let the POWERPUFF GIRLS reply on their favorite color.

Blossom: "My favorite color is pink—not a hot pink, more of a soft pink, but not too soft."

Buttercup: "Black and blue."

MICHEAL GISSY
PLAINFIELD, IL

Dear DC Comics:

I loove you show The Powerpuff Girls! I don't see them anymore because you never play them. I've always wondered why you never show Ms. Bellum's head. Well, enough about that.

On to my new POWERPUFF GIRL. Her name is Barracuta. Her nickname is Barry. Her hair is a golden blonde. Her dress and eyes are gold. Pleeese add her to the gang. She'd be a smash hit. Well, gotta go, 'bye.

Michael Gissy.

Wait a second, you don't see Ms. Bellum's head?! This doesn't happen to everyone you look at, does it?

KELLY FARRER
RUCKERSVILLE, VA

Dear Abby:

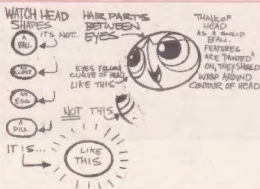

Hi. I totally love the POWERPUFF GIRLS. My best friend, Emily Litton, and I love the POWERPUFF GIRLS more than anybody in the world (maybe). I was wondering, do you draw the villains or the POWERPUFF GIRLS? I would like to know how to draw their heads. Here are some of my drawings of the POWERPUFF GIRLS. My favorite is Bubbles. I also can't draw Buttercup's hair. My favorite villain is Mojo Jojo because I like to see him get into trouble. I also like Princess Morbucks because she (almost) always gets her way like me.

What's your favorite part about writing for Cartoon Network and Craig McCracken? I have read some of your comics and they are great! How do you get your ideas for the comics?

Art by
Kelly Farrer,
12 years old.

Abby Denson doesn't draw the POWERPUFF GIRLS, she writes their adventures. But we do have style guides that show exactly how to draw the shape of the POWERPUFF GIRLS' heads.

Other DC Kids' Titles:

Dexter's Laboratory #80: When Mandark shrinks himself to literally find the way to his true love's heart, Dexter gets sucked into the action — and into Dee-Dee Plus, Dexter bids big money on a Tyrannosaurus rex in "Auction Action!"

Looney Tunes #75: Collector's item 75th issue! Bugs Bunny is DEAD — and every creature who's ever been tricked, blasted, double-crossed, out-manuevered and generally bugged by Bugs is under suspicion! Daffy sets out to find the culprit, because it's a terrible, awful, horrible thing and, well, because he's the prime suspect. Jam-packed with all the mugs, goons and ninnies from 50 years of classic Warner Bros. cartoons! Will Daff pick the right one out of the lineup?

Cartoon Cartoons #31: All-new stories featuring all the stars of Cartoon Network's hit original show! Johnny Bravo turns invisible in "See No Johnny," Cow and Chicken buy some big trouble with magic beans in "Chicken and the Beanstalk," and Ed, Edd n Eddy bake themselves a calamity cookie in "Half Bak-Ed!"

Scooby-Doo #43: Mystery Inc. gets dazzled by a glittering ghost in New York City; also, when the gang's too busy to chase a pizza-stealing beast, Shaggy and Scooby set out to solve the case themselves!

This issue's cover by Phil Moy.
